

Careers in YOUTH & SOCIAL SERVICES

Students completing a degree program in these areas learn the skills needed to work in or create programs focused on serving families, children, and community members. Courses focus on how humans develop across the lifespan, and how people function within the context of their families and larger communities. Students also receive training in how to professionally deliver services focused on children and families, so they are prepared to develop programs within both the family and community settings.

Job titles and careers of 2015-16 graduates

- ABA Therapist
- Camp Counselor
- Caregiver
- Donor Relations Manager
- Family Case Manager
- Family Support Specialist
- Health Educator
- Memory Care Coordinator
- Patient Support Partner
- Registered Behavior Technician
- Rehabilitation Specialist
- Residential Specialist
- State Adolescent Health Coordinator
- Teen Coordinator
- Volunteer Coordinator

Students looking for a career in youth and social services most often complete these degree programs within our school:

Bachelor's degrees

Community Health
Health Education
Human Development & Family Studies
Physical Education Teacher Education
Public, Nonprofit & Community Recreation
Recreational Sport Management
Recreational Therapy
Youth Development

Master's degrees

Master of Public Health
Behavioral, Social and Community Health
Family Health
Master of Science
Recreational Therapy

Notable employers that have hired our graduates

- Boys and Girls Clubs
- Centerstone
- Community Health Network
- Crystal's Behavior Solutions
- Damar
- Eldercare Connections
- Girls, Inc.
- Indiana Department of Child Services
- Indiana State Department of Health
- Middleway House
- Positive Link
- United Way
- YMCA
- Youth Services Bureau

SCHOOL OF PUBLIC HEALTH-BLOOMINGTON
OFFICE OF CAREER SERVICES